

PART ONE: SOCIAL REASONS FOR SCIENTIFIC PRACTICE

1. Pragmatism as a Vision of the World and as a Method:
A Philosophical Examination of the Challenges Presented to Contemporary Social Research by Subjective Idealism
Nkolo Foé 3

2. The Alchemist and the Apprentice Myth-Hunter,
Comments on Social Engineering in African Social Sciences
Jean-Bernard Ouédraogo & Pierre Bouda 17

PART TWO: LOGICS OF DISCOVERY

3. An Introduction to the Epistemology of the Social Sciences
Sémou Pathé Guèye 39

4. Reasons and Causes: Wittgenstein versus the Myth of Causal
Explanation in the Social Sciences
Pierre Bouda 77

5. Scientific Logics and Methodologies
Gbocho Akissi 87

6. Construction of the Subject as a Praticice of Clarificaton of Social Relationships
Jean Ferdinand Mbab 101

PART THREE: CONTEXTUAL DETERMINATIONS

7. Moroccan Sociology: Epistemological Preliminaries
Abderrahman El-Maliki 127
8. Autochthones Making their Realities Strange, in Order to Better Understand Them
Roseline M. Achieng' 139

PART FOUR: TOOLS FOR INVESTIGATION

9. Life History and the Writing of Ethnography: The Case of Morocco
Mokhtar El Harras 149
10. Audiovisual Instruments in Ethnographic Research
Clara Carvalho 163
11. Establishing an Observation, Producing a Discourse, Illustrating Results Possibilities for the Photographic Tool
Anne Attané 173
12. Comparison: A Founding Approach in the Social Sciences
Cécile Vigour 215

PART FIVE: WRITING AND RESEARCH

13. Writing in the Social Sciences: From Field Notes to Scientific Reports
Alexandra Bidet & Erwan Le Méner 249